

I have thoroughly read all documents concerning the issue of BPL/PLC and have come to the conclusion that it has the potential to cause severely harmful interference to amateur radio. Considering amateur radio is a service and is now an integral part of homeland security, I would hate to see harmful interference make an emergency situation worse for important communications. Therefore, I am greatly opposed to this technology. Thank you for your time.